

Kim Eastwood

Principal Planner

Professional Qualifications

Leeds Metropolitan University BA (Hons) Human Geography June 2005

Leeds Metropolitan University MA Town & Regional Planning October 2008

Member of Royal Town Planning Institute date elected September 2010

Selected Experience

- Lead planning consultant advising on commercial and residential property portfolio of Symphony Group Plc
- Planning advisor for country estate clients across Yorkshire (Crown Estate & Nawton Tower);
- Planning consultant for Leeds University Farms – redevelopment of part of their portfolio for residential purposes;
- Planning advisor to Yorkshire Water PLC regarding land disposals;
- Part of the planning team involved in the development of Queen Ethelburga's College campus, Ouseburn, York and advisor to Gateways School, Harewood on next phase of strategy to expand existing facilities;
- Enforcement advice to private and commercial clients
- Planning & Listed Building consent/enforcement appeal hearing attendance;
- Represented multiple clients at planning committee;
- Providing continued post planning support on a range of schemes including the discharge of planning conditions and the lawful implementation of planning permissions;

01325 469 236

info@elgplanning.co.uk

www.elgplanning.co.uk

@elgplanning

elgplanning

About Kim

Kim joined the practice in September 2017 after previously working within the private sector for 11 years, predominantly for a national property consultancy, being involved in a wide range of residential, commercial and rural schemes.